

Short Report on 3rd Cycle of Certificate Course in collaboration with BIPS on Navigating Connectivity & Diversity through Morality in Indian Social & Political Thought

1. As per the MOU with the Bengal Institute of Political Studies and the Department of Political Science & IQAC of BKGC the 3rd cycle of the Certificate Course on Navigating Connectivity & Diversity through Morality in Indian Social & Political Thought

Objective:

- A. To sensitize the students about the Indian Political and Social Thought and theoreticians which are important for any competitive examination of the land.
- B. To sensitize the students about the traditional and modern political and social thoughts

Mode:

Blended mode of Online & Offline lessons

Duration:

29.03.2025 – 30.07.2025

Evaluation 08.05.2025

Lesson Plan & Execution

Syllabus Approval: From BIPS
Hours of Class – 30
Number of Class - 20
MCQ Examination and Open forum

Valedictory Session: 03.12.25

Valedictory Lecture: Dr. Biswanath Chakraborty

Participation: Interdisciplinary Students of different semesters

Funding: College

Collaboration: Bengal Institute of Political Studies (Course approval letter attached I)

Number of Participants: Course Completed & Certificate Received: 37

Course Coordinators:

Sarbani Guha Ghosal & Soma Chandra