11. Report on the Programme:

The Department of Philosophy and IQAC at Bijoy Krishna Girls' College celebrated World Philosophy Day with activities, including a floral tribute to founder principal Sri Bijoy Krishna Bhattacharya's statue, a lamp-lighting ceremony, and speeches by distinguished guests. Dr. Ruma Bhattacharyya, the Principal, highlighted the significance of the day and its relevance in today's world. Dr. Sweta Guha, IQAC Coordinator presented the keynote address, explaining the importance of philosophical thinking in shaping society. Dr. Gargi Goswami delivered a lecture on "Navigating Ethics in a Multidisciplinary World," offering valuable insights into the topic. The second part of the event was an Inter-Departmental Paper Presentation Competition. Three students were awarded the Best Speaker prize, and certificates were given to all participants.

12. Programme Outcome:

The event was a great success, fostering intellectual engagement and promoting philosophical discussions among students and faculty.

It provided a platform for students to express their views on important contemporary topics.

The debate competition helped students enhance their critical thinking, public speaking, and argumentation skills.
