11. Report on the programme:
The seminar, titled Gita: At a Glance was inaugurated by the Principal by giving garland to the statue of Bijoy Krishna Bhattacharya, the founder Principal of the college. Then Dr Baisakhi Ghosh from department of Sanskrit addressed everybody and the programme started by lightening the lamp by the esteemed guest and speaker Swami Vedaswarupananda Maharaj and hon'ble Principal. Smt Madhabi Halder, student of 6th semester, department of Sanskrit was chanting the verse of lightening the lamp and sang a Rabindra sangeet in Sanskrit. After that Dr Ruma Bhattacharyya, Principal of the college, welcomed the esteemed speaker Swami Vedaswarupananda Maharaj by offering flower bouquet and gifts and delivered a short speech focusing the topic and in very few words giving her purview for choosing such topic. Then Dr Ghosh briefly narrated his long eventful collective life of hon'ble speaker and called Swami Maharaj to take the stage. Swami Maharaj started his speech by chanting Saraswati hymns and in brief narrated the keys of entire Gita. He spoke the basics of Gita and its importance and taught how the verses of Gita should be pronounced. He ended his prolong speech by offering Pranama to Sree Ramakrishna Thakur, Mother Saradamani and Swami Vivekananda. The programme ended with vote of thanks by the IQAC coordinator Dr Sweta Guha.
12. Programme Outcome:
The Gita emphasizes the importance of discipline in all aspects of life, promoting physical and mental wellbeing. Learning to chant the Gita and studying its verses can lead to mental clarity, emotional stability and spiritual growth. The Gita's teachings can be applied to various aspects of life, from personal relationships to professional endeavours. Gita teaches how to manage yourself from every worst in your life.
